Christians in Cameron, making the most of the Easter season were preparing to invest Good Friday with all possible significance as a feature day of a week that leads to Easter Sunday, March 24. We are indebted to Lynn Landrum of the Dallas News for this splendid summary of the spiritual value of Good Friday:

GOOD FRIDAY

We do not know whether today is the anniversary of the death of a Jewish Carpenter upon a Roman cross raised on Judean Golgotha. We cannot say for certain on what day of the year Jesus died.

Indeed, scholarship can but guess when and where the Lord was born, and research is at odds as to the exact place of His burial. If ever He wrote a single word, save on the sand, we have no record of it.

The utter want of authenticity of any direct relic of His earthly presence in the flesh seems to be almost by design, lest idolatrous man kneel to the symbol and forget to worship in spirit and in truth.

HOW BUSY ARE YOU?

Perhaps you are not a religious man at all. Few of us take time enough to feed the soul. For that matter, there is no need to give heed to the ecclesiastical calendar in order to sense that in the time of burgeoning spring there is some sort of call to turn our thoughts to the Giver of Life.

The miracle of the seed's resurrection, the miracle of winter's stark boughs clothed once more in leafy green, the miracle of nestling songsters and skipping lambs but lately come into being—who can contemplate such things and escape the inclination reverently to wonder and devoutly to give thanks?

Are you too busy today for that?

AT NO SLIGHT COST

Whether on a Friday for which this Friday stands, or on some other day, precious blood flowed slowly down and rippled upon the thirsty ground.

To the pulse of that agony the heart of Christendom beats today. It was at no slight cost that the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. It was at no slight cost that the Word became the light of the world.

AMID UNCERTAINTY

We walk in an era of uncertainty and desperate unrest. Peace—the frail peace of merely going not forth to war—hangs upon the rapid breath of graceless boasters, ranters of angry words and rattlers of reckless swords.

It was in such a time, when imperial ruthlessness trod with iron tread upon the rights and hopes of men, when peace had no champion and virtue had scarce a defender, that Jesus came and walked and talked and laid Him down at last to be spiked to a felon's gibbet.

Even the sun, we are told, hid its face, and when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

THE CONSENT OF GOD

Next Sunday you will hear the resurrection proclaimed. All the warmth of mellowed oratory and all the moving beauty of song will be poured out in thanksgiving and praise.

Easter is indeed a day of good tidings of great joy. But the day for which this instant Friday stands is by far more marvelous than Easter. Some hold it a thing of surpassing wonderment that Godliness should consent, out of love for humankind, to die. Beyond that surely not even God can go.

If not the knee, then let the thoughts be bent in reverent meditation; if not the head, then let the heart be bowed in gratitude and awe. For verily the wounds of vicarious sacrifice have not healed. Beneath the tree blood yet drips, drips, drips, upon the thirsty ground.

MRS. GUY T. NEWTON FOR SUPERINTENDENT

Mrs. Guy T. Newton, County Superintendent for Public Instruction in Milam County, today announced that she will be a candidate for the office, subject to the primary election to be held on Saturday, July 27, 1940.

The court could not make the appointment beyond a general election, therefore, Mrs. Newton, to succeed her husband, is obliged to make the race in the Primary in order to get the full term.

Mrs. Newton was born and reared in Milam County. Her family has always been prominent and has written in terms of service a record of usefulness and her announcement will be received by thousands throughout the county with genuine approval.

Since her appointment, Mrs. Newton has served with great distinction, and in asking for the full term to which her husband was elected, made the following statement.

"Under the strain of grief and uncertainty, a person is likely to come to decisions too quickly, decisions which later are found to be unwise and contrary to good judgment. Such has been my case during recent months, and even at the risk of being accused of not knowing my own mind, I wish to withdraw the former statements that I made in that period of confusion and despair. As there are already four candidates in the race, it (continued on page four)

CAMERON SCHOOLS HAVE 12 GRADES

The School Board, at its regular meeting on Thursday of last week, voted to operate on a twelve grade system, beginning with the year 1940-41. There were several reasons causing the board to take such action.

First, there is an overcrowded condition in the second grade this year which would necessitate the addition of a new teacher next year.

Second, fewer failures are expected, as a more thorough preparation will be permitted on a twelve grade basis.

Third, children will not finish school at such an early age, as they have been doing since the six year entrance law.

Fourth, it permits greater flexibility in classifying pupils and promotions.

Fifth, follows the example of the more progressive schools in our state.

The introduction of this plan calls for more study, but at present the intention is to create a new grade between the present third and fourth grade, which will be called the fourth grade and all of the present grades above that will be moved up one step, giving a total of twelve grades.

This will not affect any pupils above the present third grade insofar as the number of years it will take to graduate. Pupils in the fourth grade and above will finish in eleven years if they pass their work each year, as they have done heretofore, but the pupils below the present fourth grade will take twelve years to graduate. Only one additional teacher will be needed at this time.

CHILD WELFARE BOARD MEETS IN ROCKDALE

An interesting monthly meeting of the Milam County Health and Child Welfare Board was held at the home of Mrs. Ed Simms, Rockdale, on Thursday March 7th.

After the routine business and committee reports, Mrs. J. P. Love, President, read a report of the work of the Crippled Children's Division, State Department of Education which stated that since September 1, 1933 forty six disabled Milam County children had received hospitalization: this included white, Mexican and Negro children.

A splendid report was given by Miss Louise Lentz, County Health Nurse, telling of her work during the past month. This included visits made, conferences held to discuss crippled and feeble minded children, typhoid and prenatal cases. Miss Lentz inspected one hundred and sixty six children in the Rockdale and Conoley schools and made talks on "Social Hygiene" to the Home Demonstration Clubs at Tracy, Briary and Smyrna.

Of special interest at this time was the report given by Mrs. Gladys Hefley, Publicity Chairman for the Sale of Easter Seals for Crippled Children. Proceeds from the sale will be used to aid crippled children in the county.

Mesdames Lincoln, H. R. Brown, John E. Cooke, S. R. Schroeder were guests at the meeting.

HITLER AND MUSSOLINI IN COMPLETE ACCORD

Peace in Europe can be had only through a German victory it became known today from authoritative broadcasts from Berlin.

Hitler is quoted as saying that he will take victory with or without a conflict and is not giving concern over the choice. He feels that he can strike a decisive blow against England and France and terminate the war shortly.

For two and one-half hours, Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler talked at Brenner Pass on Italian soil. The conference seems destined to be historic as well as finally to determine whether there is to be a total war or a surrender on the part of England and France.

The dictators met on Italian soil. When they emerged from the conference, Mussolini was smiling. Hitler was pale and grave of face, indicating a momentous decision had been made.

Sumner Welles, Under-Secretary of State, was said today to contemplate returning to Berlin and to all capitals he visited 2 weeks ago. This would seem to indicate that a basis for peace may be found.

Nazi Germany has asked Italy to take Turkey away from England and France. Germany insists that Italy and Russia become friends. If this is accomplished, the world will witness a strange compromise with Stalin on one hand and the Pope on the other. The Vatican has become the clearing house for peace negotiations and it was no secret that the recent visit of Ribbentrop with the Pope made a profound impression throughout Italy and Spain.

A broadcast to the Daily Herald from the British capital expressed grave concern on the part of England over the turn of affairs and the possible role the United States will play in the coming weeks.

The Daily Herald predicts that Mussolini of Italy will shortly declare his entire approval of the German course and will back Hitler in all peace demands. There seems little room to doubt that peace with a German victory is imminent.

Notwithstanding the fact that England and France both have declared they will make no peace until Hitler is destroyed, the British policy of getting others to fight seems definitely on the way out.

Many friends in Cameron were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Beulah Ward at Rosebud, Friday, March 8th, after a few weeks illness. Mrs. Ward had visited here many times.

The most beautiful race of the day that brought the stands to their feet was the sprint medley relay between Cameron and Hearne. Paris Heard, Cameron runner, won the race from Hearne by a 2 yard lead. The time was 3 minutes and 55.4 seconds.

Ruthie Cavil won first place in essay writing with a grade of 95 per cent.

The negroes, Robert Horne, Percy Allen, Timothy Wrogers, Bishop Green and Alfred Smith, all of Waco, entered a plea of guilt to misdemeanor theft in the court of Justice Womack Brashear Tuesday morning with their bond placed at $15. Because they were unable to make bond, all were placed in jail.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 24, 1940.

The Golden Text is: "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal" (Matthew 6:19.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Then arose Peter and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass" (Luke 24:12.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: We acknowledge that the crucifixion of Jesus and his resurrection served to uplift faith to understand eternal life, even the allness of Soul, Spirit, and the nothingness of matter" (page 497.)

REDS IN VIIPURI

Russian troops have occupied Viipuri and the Finnish population are leaving for new homes in the interior of Finland.

PRESSURE ON TURKEY
AS RUMANIA LINES UP

Nazi Germany under Adolph Hitler was concerned Friday over economic defenses in the Southeast and there was every indication that further capitulation to the Dictator Powers in the Balkan would greatly enhance their military and economic power.

Since the Finnish war has ended with Russian victory, Hitler is revealed as the big boss over the totalitarian powers and was seen early Friday as the moving force behind a stroke in the Balkans to take Rumania away from England and France.

Already the significance of the call to farmers in Rumania is known. They are to begin work for Germany by producing raw materials for the Nazi war machine. There was no military significance over the summons to Bucharest of Rumania farmers.

Russia has pledged Germany that Rumania's territories will be guaranteed.

The most significant gesture of the day was pressure on Turkey. It was said in a broadcast that while the pressure was being made on Turkey the country thus far had shown no disposition to be swayed by Germany or Russia.

There was little belief in informed circles that Turkey would remain long with England and France. By now it seems to have been well demonstrated that England and France have no intention of prosecuting the war and instead of lining up neutrals the small countries are all soon to line up with the Nazi and with the Soviets leaving France and England to their own resources.

The British policy has been to get other countries to fight for her. In this war the trend is now in the other direction because it has been proven that no dependence can be placed in the Allied pledges to neutrals.

Mrs. C. E. Porter and daughter, Miss Ruth Porter, student at Baylor University, Waco, spent the week end here with Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. Tom Randolph.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE
READY FOR CHALLENGE

There will be no peace in Europe, declared Neville Chamberlain, the British Prime Minister in a speech to the House of Commons Tuesday.

Mr. Chamberlain told the British Parliament that Germany had threatened Sweden and Norway if they allowed allied troops to go to the aid of Finland.

Great Britain informed Under-Secretary of State, Sumner Welles, that peace is impossible, thus ending all hopes for any understanding and the alternative is complete war.

"England and France will not be rushed into any military adventure," said Chamberlain. He denied that the British Navy had been damaged by bombs. England and France are ready to meet any challenge made by Germany.

It was rumored and a broadcast was made that a peace plan had been launched by the Vatican in Rome to Under-Secretary of State Welles. Although no information was available, the plan is thought to be on German terms.

In Berlin it was said that the world must understand that Germany will win the war.

seems to me there is no reason why there should not be another, so with a full realization of all that the decision means, I am now announcing my candidacy for the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction. I have come to this conclusion after much prayer and deliberation, feeling that it is the only course possible for me to pursue. Since having the earlier statement printed, I have had a large number of friends come to me and tell me how much they wanted me to make the race, and I have felt in my heart all the time that I was making a mistake if I did not run. All the gentlemen who have announced for this office are my friends, and they were my husband's friends, and I have the deepest respect for all of them. I believe they are sincere in saying that they would not have announced if I had said earlier that I wanted the office, and I realize that I shall have to work harder now that I have four opponents. But I assure them and everyone that my mind is settled now, and I shall make every honest effort to win the race.

"Though I have always naturally been somewhat shy and retiring, sad Providence has made it necessary that I must take the place of father and mother, too, and for financial reasons I really need the office. I have no brothers or sisters, and my father has been dead ten years. So I must have a way of making a living, even though it does mean being away from my family a great part of the time. It is not in my nature to be dictatorial or authoritative; rather, I want to work things out with the trustees, teachers and citizens in a way that will be best for the children and the schools. I do not want to give orders, but I do want to be helpful in every way. I believe this office gives a great opportunity for service to humanity. I have had such kind consideration and co-operation that I feel sure we can work together with increasing smoothness as I become better acquainted with the duties of the office and the laws governing school matters.

"Anything worth doing at all is worth doing well," and I should not ask for the place if I did not feel capable. As you know, I am devoting my time to the work now, and each day I am becoming more familiar with the responsibilities of the position. Surely it would be better to elect one who has already learned the work than to have so many changes during such a short time. The law did not allow me to be appointed for all of my husband's unexpired term, and his term would not have ended until January 1, 1943. So I am really asking for the remainder of his term and two additional years. I have all the qualifications required by law for the office, and if you elect me, my efforts will all be directed toward trying to make as good a County Superintendent as did he whose place I am now taking. By giving the place to me, you will be helping the ones he loved, and you will be thus honoring the memory of one who devoted his life to service to his friends.

"Since I am busy with the duties of the office and learning the work, I may not be able to see all of the voters. But I shall talk with as many as possible, and if anyone is overlooked, I humbly ask forgiveness. I assure you it will not be intentional, and I earnestly request your vote in the July primary.

NEW FRENCH CABINET FORMED THURSDAY

France has a new cabinet today formed by Paul Reynaud, finance minister who was summoned to the presidential palace on Tuesday when the government of Premier Eduoard Deladier resigned.

The new cabinet has been accepted by President Lebrun. It is known as a war cabinet and according to dispatches from the French capital, the war will be speeded up.

The cabinet of Mr. Deladier fell before criticism of the French people for failure of the government to wage war against Germany.

It was announced from allied as well as the German capitals that Reynaud is a bitter enemy of Nazi Germany.

In London, there will be a shake up Friday in the British cabinet, it was said by radio broadcasts at noon Thursday.

Since the surrender of Finland to Soviet Russia, there has been an increased anger throughout England and France and wide spread demand for vigorous prosecution of the war.

A sensational development of the day was a statement emanating from a high source in Moscow to the effect that England may now have the friendship of Russia, that Germany will not succeed in her attempts to drive the Soviet into war against England and France.

The British government would not agree to mediate the Finnish dispute and Russia was said to be offended. There is no inclination anywhere in the British Isles for any sort of compromise with Russia or England.

ALLIES WILL SPURN ANY PEACE MOVE

Rumania has lined up with Nazi Germany and Soviet Russia in the power diplomatic war in Europe.

King Carol in Bucharest Saturday set aside by royal decree his proclamation of a year ago outlawing the Iron Guard following the mass executions of Nazis after they had slain the Foreign Minister.

Members of the Iron Guard may now return to Rumania. The German government had been turned down on a request that Iron Guard members be admitted to the Rumanian Cabinet.

In Berlin a denial was made that Rumania had capitulated to the Nazis.

A noon broadcast to the Daily Herald Saturday said that King Carol had obtained a guarantee from Germany that Rumanian borders be protected against Russia, Bulgaria and Hungary. In exchange for this Rumania will give Germany increased oil and raw materials.

A British Cabinet shake up with the air and supply ministers leaving the government. In France it was reported that Premier Deladier will surrender to General Gustav Maurice Gamelin the war ministry and thus answer criticism that the government has been too slow to prosecute the war.

In the far east Russian and Japanese troops had engaged in a fight when it was claimed that Soviets had violated the Japanese border.

Answering world wide criticism of their indecision and failure to fulfill their alliances with small countries, both the British and French governments said they would spurn any peace move to be made and that the war will not end until Nazi Germany has been defeated and Hitler driven from power.

What the world was asking is:

When did the war begin?

Ribbentrop, the Germany foreign minister, was in Moscow to bring about understanding between Russia and Italy. It was thought entirely probable that the Reds and Mussolini will be brought together.

In Sapin General Franco who had the aid of both Germany and Italy in the war against the Communists, urged Italy to give aid to England and France in a war on both Russia and Germany.

Alma Meyer and Francis Nabours spent the week end in Huntsville with Trent Nabours and Emma Julia Akers who are students of Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville.

NEW SALEM

"When I decided to become poultry demonstrator in our club," said Bettie Stephens of the New Salem 4-H club, "I knew that I would need a brooder house but we could not afford to build one. One year when we had an unusually large crop of sweet potatoes we built a large bank for them. I decided to use this bank for my brooder by putting an oil lamp in it for heat. I am going to raise about 300 baby chicks this year. I will put a piece of tin over the lamp hole and scatter sand over this. This bank has, of course, one side open and I plan to screen in a sun porch for the baby chicks when they get older."

I am also a bedroom co-operator in my club and for my goal this month I am going to add the bathing center to my bedroom. We have an old wash stand which I plan to refinish for this purpose."

Ethel Mae McCormick, Assistant County Home Dem. Agent.

VAL VERDE

Mavis Locklen of the Val Verde 4-H Club has decided to become bedroom demonstrator for the club this year. When the club held their regular meeting at her home this month, the demonstration was on finishes for the walls, floors and woodwork. Since she can not add a clothes closet to her room due to the lack of space and the room being used also as a living room, she has decided to complete the other goals which will make it a comfortable and livable two purpose room. She will refinish the floor, the walls, add new curtains, all of the protective bedding necessary, and add new pictures and arrange them correctly.

Ethel Mae McCormick, Assistant County Home Dem. Agent.

ON WITH WAR IS PLEA OF PEOPLE

The French cabinet, including Premier Deladier, was driven from power Wednesday by criticism by the people of the French nation.

The resignation of the cabinet was forced by criticism over the conduct of the war, and the announcement that the cabinet had resigned headlined the world news for the day.

It was said that Mr. Deladier may be permitted to return as premier but is faced with the critical problem of forming a new cabinet.

The French people have become impatient with delay and failure to prosecute the war. In England there was also a rising tide of criticism over the failure of the Chamberlain government to vigorously prosecute the war.

Winston Churchill and Sir Oliver Stanley of the British government in speeches today said, "The war will continue and there will be no peace and no compromise."

Mrs. Ernest Von Rosenberg of Austin and Miss Wilma Mae Carlton of Beaumont visited in Cameron Thursday.

C. P. and Wallace Davis toured East Texas over the week end.

Mrs. Estell Younts visited her sister, Mrs. Tommy Kolinek in Temple Tuesday.

Way "Build-up" Helps Will Interest Women

The cause of a woman's periodic suffering from headache, irritability, cramp-like pain, may be functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, a condition that is often helped by CARDUI.

Principal way CARDUI helps is by stimulating appetite and the flow of gastric juices. Thus it may aid digestion; help build up a woman's strength, energy and nerve-force; so increase physical resistance to periodic discomfort.

It also helps reduce periodic distress for many who take it a few days before and during "the time." Your confidence in CARDUI is invited by its 50 years of popularity.

O. C. Acrey Continues With Sermons Each Night Here

"Future Values for the Christian" is the sermon subject tonight of Rev. O. C. Acrey at the Presbyterian Church. This is the third of a series of sermons outlining to Christian people the content of Christian Faith in practice and principle.

Appeal is made at each service to those who have not yet availed themselves of these values for living today and in the life which is to come.

Special music tonight will be given by Mr. F. E. Woodruff and Mrs. W. E. Keuhl.

Three more services remain for the week nights. The revival closes Easter Sunday.

LIONS HEAR ABOUT EARLY INDIAN LIFE

By O. C. ACREY

Lions listened with rapt attention Tuesday to one of the most fascinating subjects brought before the club in a long while as J. B. White, editor and publisher, lover of nature lore, student of archaeology, and owner of one of the most valued collections of Indian Relics, lectured on his experiences in unearthing and collecting hundreds of pieces of Indian artifacts.

Of unusual interest was the revelation that Milam County was so rich in these artifacts, having over 50 Indian villages. Mr. White went back to his early boyhood days as a background of his interest in the out of doors. "The constant pressure of routine business and the natural strains of everyday living ought to urge any man to seek expression and outlet in some form," Mr. White said. He began to take interest in such things early in boyhood. Today, Mr. White's exhibit reveals many miles of travel in the far reaches of Milam County and adjacent territory. The Collection is one of the most interesting and fascinating of its kind in America. The speaker brought his high points from a paper which he prepared and read to the Central Texas Archaeological Society at its meet in Waco recently. Lions enjoyed several minutes of informal discussion with Mr. White after the meeting was adjourned. The display of artifacts aroused the curiosity of the members and Mr. White spent some time giving additional points of interest about them. Of interest to every one was the fact that Mr. White has collected about 40,000 pieces of these artifacts. The lecture was informative, interesting, intelligent and led toward a higher appreciation of this race of people who really possessed a high culture and were remarkable in their abilities to do for themselves. Proper evaluation of their contributions to our present civilization is discernible in their crude but effective efforts at mining metals.

Other parts of the program included a report from the Committee on Sight Conservation and Blind Work. Six members who have recently joined the club were inducted into the club by the Lions Education Committee.

Harold Heath and S. C. Matthews, employees of Green & Boedeker Grocery Store, attended the De Laval Creamery convention at the Jefferson Hotel in Dallas Wednesday. R. F. Sidel, representative of the De Laval in Chicago, gave the address at the banquet.

Mrs. Edwin Bigbee and two children, Miss Beryl and Billie, of Houston have concluded a visit here with Mrs. L. Bigbee.

Judge Ed Gunn of Rockdale was in Cameron transacting business in Cameron Wednesday.

"THANKS FOR A LOVELY EVENING..."

A new kind of beer retailing is bringing wholesome recreation to millions of Americans!

America's new kind of beer retailer wants to sell good beer, of course... but he is also keenly aware of his social responsibility to the community. He makes sure that his place is clean and inviting—and scrupulously free of anti-social influences of any kind.

The Brewing Industry wants all of beer's retailers to be of this type. We do not want any other kind. And we are taking action to eliminate any abuses in beer retailing that may occur.

We have instituted a new plan... now in effect in a few states and being extended as rapidly as possible... to protect your right to drink good beer in decent surroundings. May we tell you about it... in an interesting free booklet? Write: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.
